I apply to be deemed not a worker under Part 4 of the Workers' Safety and Compensation Act

Corporation Name

I am a "non working director" and am not active in the corporation's operations in the Yukon and and not subject to the hazards of the industry of the corporation

I am not performing any work for the corporation while acting in my capacity as a director in the Yukon (no directing, negotiating, influencing or decision-making affecting work, and no visits to the corporation's worksites to perform services)

I will not receive any employment earnings from the corporation, including salary, wages, tips, commissions, bonuses, allowances or directors' fees. (Dividends are not considered employment earnings)

I do not receive a T4 or T4A from the corporation (Except for fees related to attending annual general meetings and other incidental duties as a director)

If the board approves this exemption, I understand:

- I am not entitled to compensation benefits in the case of a work-related injury
- The corporation and non-working director do not have immunity from civil lawsuits arising from work-related injuries
- I must file an exemption application to the board each year

If at any time my circumstances change, the corporation and I are both responsible to notify the board as soon as possible. Failure to provide timely notice may result in additional assessments, fees and penalties.

If the board does not approve this exemption the corporation will be responsible for reporting my employment earnings to the board and paying assessments on my employment earnings as a director.
