SECTION REFERENCES

Subsection 104 (1) of the Workers' Compensation Act, R.S.Y. 2002 ('the 2002 Act') provides as follows:

- If a worker is entitled to compensation as a result of a disability caused in 1982 or earlier, his or her entitlement is determined pursuant to the Act as it was in force before January 1, 1983.
- If a worker is entitled to compensation as a result of a disability caused in 1992 or earlier, his or her entitlement is determined pursuant to the Act as it was in force before January 1, 1993.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of this policy is to outline how the policies of the board will, when necessary, be updated as amendments are made from time-to-time to the Act.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The policies of the Board of Directors provide direction and guidelines to board staff in order to ensure consistency in the exercise of the discretion of the board under the Act and to ensure that the objectives of the Act are being met.

Attached as Appendix A of this policy is a section-by-section comparison of the 1992 Workers' Compensation Act and the 2002 Act.

DEFINITIONS

Entitlement: means the right to benefits, income or property which may not be altered without due process.

Compensation: means any amount payable or services provided under the Act in respect of a disabled worker.

POLICY STATEMENT

Establishment of Policies Applicable to Prior Workers' Compensation Acts

The Board of Directors has the authority to establish policies of the board that apply to prior Workers' Compensation Acts.

Application of Predecessor Legislation

A worker's entitlement to compensation is determined pursuant to the Act in force at the time the worker's disability occurred. Policies of the board that were in force at the time the worker's disability occurred will be applied, unless a subsequent policy applies.

Any processes, procedures, and administration of the board relating to claims for compensation will be carried out in accordance with the Act as it is currently in force.

Amendments to the Act

When any amendments are made to the Act the board will, as soon as practicable, make any changes to its policies that are required to ensure consistency with any amended provisions or section references in the Act.

In the interim, where any inconsistency exists between a provision of a policy of the board and a provision of the Act, the provision of the Act will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.
